

Navy COs Get Expanded Separation Authority

The Navy changed its Military Personnel Manual regarding enlisted performance, conduct, Detachment for Cause and separations.

Deal of the Week : $20 Off TRX FORCE Kit

The complete "gym in a bag" used by U.S. troops to build total-body strength and endurance anywhere.

New TRICARE Formulary Search Tool

Beneficiaries can use the new TRICARE Formulary Search Tool to find which medications are in the uniform formulary.

Navy Modifies IA Evaluations

The Navy has modified its Performance Evaluations and Advancement Eligibility to ensure individual augmentees' service is properly recognized.

GI Bill: Fast Path to a Better Job

Are you looking for opportunities to add licensing and certification to your resume?

Featured Job: Find Military Friendly Employers Today

Visit Military.com's Veteran Job Board to search thousands of jobs.

Should You Use the GI Bill While on Active Duty?

While on Active Duty you will earn up to $4,500 a year through Tuition Assistance to cover the cost of college courses taken during off-duty hours.

VA Streamline Refinance Remains Quick and Easy

While the FHA Streamline refinance program gets tougher, VA Streamline refinancing remains as its name implies -- STREAMLINED.

Superior Life Insurance for You and Your Family

AFBA offers life insurance products that suit the needs of a military family.

Military.com Career Fair -- Fort Drum, NY

Register today for the Fort Drum, NY. Military.com Career Expo on July 15, 2010.

Let Us Simplify Your Move

Our moving experts can easily connect your home services online.

Bet on a New Job in Las Vegas

Military.com Career Expo is coming to Las Vegas on July 20, 2010.

Puerto Rico Extends Birth Certificate Validity

The government of Puerto Rico extended the validity of current birth certificates until Sept. 30.

Navy Academic Skills Courses Go Online

The Navy Academic Skills Program offered through 21 Navy College Learning Centers is moving to an online-only version.

AFROTC Instructor Vacancies

Opportunities are available for qualified officers to fill nearly 100 projected Air Force ROTC detachment instructor vacancies throughout the nation next summer.

Shopping at the Exchange

Who can shop at the Exchange?

DoD Aids Adoption

The Department of Defense's Adoption Reimbursement Program reimburses servicemembers for certain adoption expenses.

DFAS Stops Savings Bond Allotments

The Defense Finance and Accounting Service will stop all current Savings Bonds allotments processed for military personnel and military retirees effective July 31.

Pet Travel Guidelines

DoD regulations limit shipping pets -- dogs and cats only -- to passengers who are moving to a new duty location.

New AF Travel Card Controls

Air Force officials are piloting an unprecedented controlled spend account concept with an expected service-wide rollout of fall, 2010.

Army Family Child Care

The Army's Family Child Care FCC matches trained Child, Youth and School Services child care providers with families.

Illinois Schools Get Military Family Friendly

Illinois is the 35th state to join the Nationwide Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children.